

Summary:

There are three methods for solving for x algebraically in a quadratic equation:

- Factoring: works when quadratics are factorable; set each Part equal to zero.
- Square Root Method: works when you have an x^2 and no other x ; solve by taking the square root of both sides.
- Quadratic Formula: works all the time! ~~~~~